- 17.3 No legal proceedings shall be commenced for and on behalf of DSA unless prior resolution of its General Council or National Executive Committee had authorised such proceedings.

Article 18

PREFERENTIAL CLAUSE

18. In all cases this Constitution shall take preference over the Constitutions of Clubs, Districts, Provinces and Association member bodies.

Article 19

INDEMNIFICATION

19. All members of the Management Council are hereby deemed to be indemnified by the organisation in respect of any liability incurred by them (or any of them) in the performance of their delegated duties.

Article 20

BYE-LAWS

20. Bye-Laws

Darts South Africa may make, repeal and amend Bye-Laws as it may from time to time consider being necessary for the internal management of the organisation.

The making, rescission and amendments of Bye Laws shall be affected at a General Council Meeting upon a resolution being passed by a simple majority of the member associations eligible to vote at such Meeting.

The DSA Playing Rules and Championship Handbook are separate from the DSA Bye-Laws.

Article 21

INCOME AND PROPERTY

21. The Organization may not give any of its money or property to its members or office bearers. The only time it can do this is when it pays for work that a member or office bearer has done for the Organization. The payment must be a reasonable amount for the work that has been done.

Article 22

PROPERTY AND OTHER ASSETS

22. Members or office bearers of the Organization do not have rights over things that belong to the Organization.

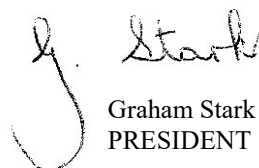

Article 23

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

23. The Organization may close down if at least two thirds of the members present and voting at a meeting convened for the purpose of considering such matter, are in favour of closing down.

When the Organization closes down, it has to pay off all its debts. After doing this, if there is property and/or money left over, it should not be paid or given to members of the Organization. It must be given in some way to another non-profit organization that has similar objectives. The Organization's General Meeting can decide which organization this should be.
