YOUTH (U18) NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP RULES

PREAMBLE

In all Championships matters, including eligibility for participation, jurisdiction rests solely with the National Management Council of DARTS SOUTH AFRICA. Participants MUST be under the age of 18 for the duration of the National Championships. Identified organizational assistance may be delegated to the Province in whose area of activity the Event is played. Other assistance may also be delegated.

The Official Playing Rules of Darts South Africa and these competition Regulations cover playing matters. The Tournament Directorate shall decide the interpretation of any Playing Rule or Competition Regulation as well as any matter not specifically covered by these Rules and regulations. Their decision shall be final and binding for immediate application. Any further dispute will be referred to a General Council meeting for possible inclusion in the Rules and/or Regulations at some future date.
